B.1 Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

The Abilene Housing Authority has incorporated in its PHA Plan goals and objectives, and policies and procedures the applicable provisions of the Violence Against Women (VAWA) and Reauthorization Act of 2013, to assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The PHA goal to provide an improved living environment is being met by its effort to implement measures to assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, in avoiding their abusers and continuing occupancy in public housing.

Towards its effort to meet the PHA goal to promote self-sufficiency and asset development of assisted households, the PHA is partnering with local agencies to provide or attract supportive services to assist victims of domestic violence move out of abusive situations and begin again. Among these are, 2-1-1 Texas A Call for Help services, The Noah Project, and the local Police Department. 2-1-1 Texas A Call for Help services provides information on shelters, where to obtain monetary support, clothing and food. The Noah Project is a homeless shelter for victims of abuse, this organization also has an in-house legal team to assist victims in obtaining a restraining order through the courts. The local Police Department cooperates by taking reports of abuse and providing the victims with such reports as needed as proof of abuse. The Regional Victim Crisis Center assist victims and survivors of sexual assault and other violence.

In addition, the PHA has amended its policies and procedures to include language and applicable provisions of the VAWA. It is the PHA's intent to maintain compliance with all applicable requirements imposed by VAWA.

The PHA efforts may include to:

- Provide and maintain housing opportunities for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking;
- Provide flyers regarding the Violence Against Women Act and supportive information.
- Create and maintain collaborative partnerships between PHA, victim service providers, law enforcement authorities, and other supportive groups to promote the safety and well-being of victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or staking (whether actual or imminent threat) who are assisted by PHA;
- Provide referral information to victims and encourage them to seek assistance from the supportive agencies and the local police department.
- Ensure the physical safety of victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking (whether actual or imminent threat) who are assisted by PHA; maintain compliance with all applicable requirements imposed by VAWA.
- Take appropriate action in response to an incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, affecting families or individuals assisted by PHA.

The Housing Authority provided notification as required after the Act was established. Notification is provided at each eligibility briefing, annual re-examination, accompanied with

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and change. From the first settlers to the present day, the nation has evolved through various stages of development. The early years were marked by exploration and settlement, followed by a period of rapid expansion and industrialization. The American Revolution and the Civil War were pivotal moments in the nation's history, shaping its identity and values.

The United States has a rich and diverse cultural heritage. The melting pot of different ethnicities and languages has created a unique American identity. The nation's history is filled with stories of courage, sacrifice, and achievement. The American Dream, the belief that anyone can achieve success through hard work and determination, is a central theme in the nation's history.

The United States has played a significant role in world history. From the American Revolution to the Civil War, the nation has been a leader in the struggle for freedom and democracy. The American Civil War was a turning point in the nation's history, leading to the abolition of slavery and the establishment of a more unified and democratic society. The United States has also been a major force in the world economy and politics, shaping the course of human history.

The United States is a nation of many firsts. It was the first to declare independence from a foreign power, the first to establish a federal government, and the first to abolish slavery. The nation's history is a testament to the power of the American people to create a better future for themselves and for the world.

The United States is a nation of opportunity. The American Dream is a powerful force that has inspired generations of Americans to pursue their dreams and achieve their goals. The nation's history is a story of hope and possibility, of a land where anyone can make a difference.

The United States is a nation of progress. From the first settlers to the present day, the nation has been at the forefront of innovation and discovery. The American spirit of exploration and adventure has led to many of the great achievements of the modern world.

The United States is a nation of freedom. The American Revolution was a fight for the right to self-determination and the right to live under a government of one's own making. The Civil War was a fight for the right to equality and the right to live in a free and democratic society. The United States has always been a land of freedom, and it will continue to be so in the future.

The United States is a nation of hope. The American Dream is a powerful force that has inspired generations of Americans to pursue their dreams and achieve their goals. The nation's history is a story of hope and possibility, of a land where anyone can make a difference.

The United States is a nation of progress. From the first settlers to the present day, the nation has been at the forefront of innovation and discovery. The American spirit of exploration and adventure has led to many of the great achievements of the modern world.
